

Clerical re-checks, reviews of marking and appeals – Candidate consent form

Information for candidates

The following information explains what may happen following a review of marking and any subsequent appeal.

If your school submits a request for a review of the original marking, or a subsequent appeal for one of your examinations after the grade has been issued, there are three possible outcomes:

- Your original mark is lowered, so your final grade may be lower than the original grade you received
- Your original mark is confirmed as correct, so there is no change to your grade
- Your original mark is raised, so your final grade may be higher than the original grade you received

To proceed with the review of marking, you must sign the form below. This tells us that you have understood what the outcome might be and that you give your consent to the re-check or review of marking being submitted.

Details of review (exam board, qualification, subject, component/unit/paper):

I give my consent to the head of my school or college to submit a clerical re-check or a review of marking for the examination(s) listed above. In giving consent I understand that the final subject grade and/or mark awarded to me following a clerical re-check or a review of marking, and any subsequent appeal, may be higher than, lower than or the same as the result which was originally awarded for this subject.
